GENERAL INFORMATION ON ASYLUM

In accordance with the State Constitution and Law on Asylum the Republic of Serbia grants asylum to foreigners who fear prosecution in their country of origin. These persons must meet certain criteria established in the Law on Asylum. Asylum seekers have to submit an asylum application in order to start the asylum procedure. The first step in seeking asylum in Serbia is Expressing the Intent to seek asylum in Police Station and receiving a Certificate from the police directing you to the nearest Asylum Center with free space. Currently you may also be accommodated in one of the Transit Centers (Refugee Aid Points) for which you do not need a referral from the police.
